

Feminist Legal Studies Queen's and the Faculty of Law Speakers Series present:

PATRICIA HUGHES

LEGAL EDUCATION IN VIOLENCE AGAINST WOMEN --

TAKING IT TO LAW SCHOOLS AND COMMUNITIES

Patricia Hughes has served as Executive Director of the Law Commission of Ontario since its establishment in 2008. Previously, she has served as Dean of the University of the Calgary Faculty of Law, Vice-Chair of the Ontario Labour Relations Board, consultant to the federal Commission on Equality in Employment under Rosalie Abella, now a Justice on the Supreme Court of Canada, and Counsel in the Ministry of the Attorney General (Ontario) in relation to constitutional matters.

In this presentation, Patricia will be reporting on an the Law Commission of Ontario's innovative project on building curricular resources to expand legal education in violence against women and providing information on the wide range of applications these materials make possible.

Monday, October 29, 2012
1pm-2:30pm Macdonald Hall 201
All students welcome
Sandwiches, coffee, and dessert provided